EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S WELCOME

Angela Ross, ND

Welcome to CONNECT 2024: Emergence! We are so thrilled you are here!

As our committee sat down to brainstorm conference themes for our CONNECT 2024 annual continuing education conference, the topics of transition and growth were on all of our minds. We wanted to choose a theme that would convey the excitement and the potential of this particular moment in our profession's trajectory - a time when our schools are taking measures to strengthen their standing; when our Association welcomes our newest President and engages our first ever strategic planning initiative; and when our profession faces a unique opportunity to argue the case for full inclusion as primary care physicians in Washington through our in-progress Sunrise Review. We are watching our colleagues in other states advance toward regulation and licensure, and we are waking up and leaning in to new opportunities every day.

When we made the decision in 2022 to transition our conference from the fall to the spring starting last year, we did not imagine just how busy this 2024 spring season would be for us. In addition to our significant Sunrise Review effort, we identified multiple opportunities for advocacy and found ourselves at the center of several rule-making endeavors by various Washington State departments, as well as pursuing some opportunities to educate other local governmental agencies. We've been preparing for and attending hearings and meetings on an almost weekly basis - all while planning another incredible and informative continuing education event for our community! In some ways, this conference weekend feels like we are emerging from a months-long period of thoughtful preparation and moving forward into decisive action.

In the next few months, we expect to receive the draft Sunrise Review report from the Department of Health and will better understand the next steps in our effort to align naturopathic scope of practice with that of other recognized primary care practitioners in Washington. By late summer, we expect to have our strategic plan finalized and in place to help guide our organization forward over the next several years. In one of the busiest campaign seasons in a while, we will do our best to identify and support lawmakers who care deeply about naturopathic physicians and who will fight with and for us in Olympia. We will move into the 2025 Legislative Session with more clarity around our scope expansion bill, and with an intent to further momentum around recent efforts to require insurers to provide cost of living increases to all contracted health care practitioners.

And we will continue pushing ourselves with new and repeat offerings aimed at connecting and informing our professional community. More "After Hours" casual social events, a Speakeasy-themed Annual Member Party, a brand new Night @ the Mariners event, our second annual Business/Practice Management Seminar, and some holiday get-together opportunities are all on the calendar for this year.

Emergence can be challenging and even painful. But we know it is necessary for progress, maturing, and advancement. We will continue to prioritize healthy and sustainable growth for our organization as we continue doing our best to support our members as they adapt and change.

Thank you for participating in CONNECT 2024! May you emerge from this year's event full of information and inspired to reflect not only on your own transitions and how you are where you are, but also on your hope for the future of our profession and on how our collective strengthens not only each other but also the entire healthcare system.

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

Teresa Richter, ND

Welcome to CONNECT 2024! We are so excited for this year's conference!

There is so much growth happening this time of year - not only growth in the midst of spring but also growth within the naturopathic physician profession and within the Washington Association of Naturopathic Physicians (WANP). The WANP has been hard at work on behalf of its members and the entire profession. As the air grows sweeter and the days longer, we hope to see you at one of our exciting 2024 events. Be on the lookout for invitations to upcoming social events, our Annual Member Party, a WANP Night at the Mariners, another Business/Practice Management Seminar, and more! We are metamorphosing like a caterpillar to a butterfly. Emergence is here.

As we emerge from our winter cocoons, we are ready to reveal our efforts. We have an amazing lineup of conference speakers and topics that should engage your mind, body, and soul and provide new information for your practice. We have some fun movement based classes to start off our mornings and get our blood circulating. Our conference will close out with a powerhouse afternoon on Sunday. Don't miss our world renowned keynote speaker, Dr. Terry Wahls, followed by a live conversation and Q&A on low dose herbs for cardiovascular conditions with herbal experts and naturopathic physicians Jillian Stansbury and Eric Yarnell. As always, our conference app features opportunities to connect with friends and colleagues, to network, and to engage with our corporate partners and conference exhibitors. We will also be posting to our community social wall and we sincerely hope you will have some fun along with your learning during this conference weekend.

Please don't miss our Annual Membership Meeting during the lunch hour on Friday, May 3. Our board of Directors and committees have been hard at work on many exciting things and they can't wait to fill you in on all that we have been up to!

On an ongoing basis, it is our commitment to support, protect, and advance naturopathic medicine in Washington State. We could not do the work that we do without the financial support of our members, corporate partners, and event sponsors and exhibitors. Creating these relationships is of the utmost importance to us so that we may continue to bring you top of the line educational programming as well as exclusive member benefits, like discounts on CE, on clinical resources like VisualDx, and on local vendors. Of course, another significant benefit of membership in the WANP is supporting and informing our advocacy work on behalf of the profession. If you are not currently a member of the WANP, I urge you to join. If you are a current member, I remind you to check the membership area on our website from time to time as we regularly add benefits. If you would like to get more involved with the WANP, please reach out to us. WANP members are welcome to serve on any of our committees, and our Board of Directors nominations will open soon!

Thank you so much for being here! Enjoy this weekend of Emergence!

CONFERENCE CHAIR'S WELCOME

Lorinda Sorensen, ND, LAc

Welcome to WANP's CONNECT 2024: Emergence!

Our Continuing Education Committee has been working hard since last year to create a fabulous conference lineup featuring a diverse range of topics, popular regional speakers who are at the forefront of their respective fields, and a nationally recognized keynote speaker. We hope that our conference provides some amazing knowledge for everyone. We want to welcome each and every one of you. Whether you are participating from your home, office, or while on a walk in the woods, we're delighted you have joined us for this year's event.

When our committee started exploring themes for our 2024 conference, the concept of "emerging" or "emergence" came to mind. Emergence can be defined as "the process of complex pattern formation from more basic constituent parts". We have all undergone the process of Emergence: starting out as an individual student excited for the future, then graduating and practicing, and finally becoming part of the full profession by joining and supporting the WANP. You continue to strive to learn more - that's why you're here!

Emergence is change, and change can be challenging, but it is a requirement for progress and advancement. The most exciting, emergent change that is coming for Washington-licensed naturopathic physicians and the WANP is an updated Sunrise Review on our continuing efforts to advance naturopathic scope of practice in Washington to better support our patients in our statute-recognized role as primary care providers, including the ability to prescribe schedule II-V controlled substances. The Sunrise Review Public Comment meeting was just held last week on April 24, 2024, and we are grateful for the support and engagement from our whole naturopathic and allied community.

The WANP has been heavily engaged in the Sunrise Review process for the past year, and this work will continue through this summer and fall and right back into the 2025 Legislative Session. I can honestly say that my own awareness of the time and effort required of this process, as well as my knowledge of the Washington Department of Health's regulatory Board of Naturopathy (which is the rule-making, licensing, and disciplinary authority for our profession), would be very limited if I were not an active member of the WANP. I'm extremely thankful for the work the WANP has done in the past, and for the work we will continue to do well into the future.

If you are not a WANP member, please consider joining us to show your support for our professional community and for naturopathic medicine. Our mission involves "working to increase public awareness of and access to naturopathic medical services," and "contributing to quality of care through continuing professional education programs." We are able to do these things only because of the support of our members. The WANP is dedicated to advocating for naturopathic medicine in Washington State, and to you.

Thank you again for being here. Enjoy the conference!

About WANP

What is the WANP?

The WANP is the non-profit professional association for Naturopathic Physicians (NDs) in the State of Washington, incorporated in 1934. We are supported and funded through annual dues paid by our members, contributions from our corporate supporters, and revenue from our educational events.

Mission Statement: The mission of the WANP is to support our members and advocate for naturopathic medicine in Washington State. We work to increase public awareness of and access to naturopathic medical services, and we contribute to quality of care through continuing professional education programs.

What is the purpose of the WANP?

The Washington Association of Naturopathic Physicians (WANP) represents the interests of its member naturopathic physicians in the state of Washington. Its function is to serve the profession and the community through effective leadership and commitment to excellence in health education and health care services.

We work to achieve this through the following program offerings:

Legislative Representation: The WANP represents the interests of its members to the Washington State legislature and to other local, state, and federal government entities.

Continuing Education: The WANP offers continuing education seminars and conferences for naturopathic physicians and other health care professionals.

Member Benefits: The WANP works diligently to develop and provide useful benefits for our membership, emphasizing cost savings, clinical tools, and business and financial resources.

Naturopathic Physician Referrals: The WANP serves Washington residents by providing referrals to qualified member physicians.

Public Outreach: The WANP is dedicated to educating Washington residents on the benefits of naturopathic medicine and facilitating access to NDs throughout the state.

Collaboration: The WANP works with businesses, healthcare and educational institutions, and other organizations to further the health and well-being of Washington residents.

KEYNOTE REMARKS

Terry Wahls, MD, IFMCP, FACP

Clinical Professor of Medicine | University of Iowa Carver College of Medicine

Dr. Terry Wahls is a clinical professor of medicine at the University of Iowa Carver College of Medicine in Iowa City, Iowa, where she teaches internal medicine residents in their primary care clinics and conducts clinical trials. She is also a patient with secondary progressive multiple sclerosis, which confined her to a tilt-recline wheelchair for four years. Dr. Wahls restored her health using a diet and lifestyle program she designed specifically for her brain, and she now pedals her bike to work each day. She is the author of The Wahls Protocol: How I Beat Progressive MS Using Paleo Principles and Functional Medicine, The Wahls Protocol: A Radical New Way to Treat All Chronic Autoimmune Conditions Using Paleo Principles, and the cookbook The Wahls Protocol Cooking for Life: The Revolutionary Modern Paleo Plan to Treat All Chronic Autoimmune Conditions. In addition to these books, Dr. Wahls has published over 60 peer-reviewed scientific abstracts, posters, and papers.

Dr. Wahls is an Institute for Functional Medicine Certified Practitioner and in 2018 was awarded the Institute for Functional Medicine's Linus Pauling Award for her contributions in research, clinical care, and patient advocacy.

The focus of her clinical research is the effect of nutrition and lifestyle interventions to treat MS and other progressive health problems. She also teaches the public and medical community about the healing power of the Paleo diet and therapeutic lifestyle changes that restore health and vitality to our citizens. She hosts a Wahls Protocol Seminar every August where anyone can learn how to implement the Protocol with ease and success.

Carly Polland, ND

Naturopathic Physician | Carly Polland, ND

Dr. Carly Polland is a clinician and educator focusing on the intersection of endocrinology and immunology with the microbiome. Having suffered her own chronic digestive issues, she has always been keenly interested in the microbiome. Upon graduating from Bastyr University, she quickly realized that the standard naturopathic approach to gut health and the microbiome taught in school fell short for many patients. Through the efforts of other clinicians, educators and researchers, she learned how to apply next generation sequencing in clinical practice and how to utilize natural therapeutics beyond probiotics to modify the microbiome for resolution of digestive symptoms and remission of autoimmune disease.

With a background in cellular biology, chemistry and education, she helps patients and practitioners decode complex symptoms and disease with evidenced-based integrative medicine. In private practice, she specializes in Hashimoto's, SIBO, menopause, and many other autoimmune, digestive, and hormonal imbalances. She is also Clinical Lead at Biomesight, a company offering 16s rRNA microbiome sequencing to the public.

Jordan Robertson, ND

*Naturopathic Physician | Clarity Health
CEO | The Confident Clinician*

Dr. Jordan Robertson is a Naturopathic Doctor, CEO of The Confident Clinician, NAMS Certified Menopause Practitioner (NCMP), clinic owner, and author. Her background in critical appraisal and research lead her to develop and implement courses on research in integrative medicine and nutrition at McMaster University for 10 years and has gifted her numerous speaking and education opportunities across Canada and the US.

In 2020, Dr. Robertson launched The Confident Clinician, an online practice resource and database for Naturopathic Doctors that now has over 650 clinician members that are supported with evidence based content every month. She has lectured for various groups including McMaster Medical School, The Ontario Association of Naturopathic Doctors, The Canadian College of Naturopathic Medicine, and the University of Waterloo Pharmacy school. She has also been a guest on multiple podcasts across North America discussing women's health. Dr. Robertson has a special interest in women's health, including expertise on PMS, menopause, fertility, PCOS, and endometriosis. Dr. Robertson is the off-site Naturopathic Doctor for the McMaster Hospital Endometriosis Clinic, and owns an integrative medical centre, Clarity Health, in Burlington, Ontario (Canada). She hosts the Women's Health Unplugged podcast.

Andrew Simon, ND, BCB

Naturopathic Physician | Rebel Med NW

Dr. Andrew Simon is co-founder of Rebel Med NW in Seattle, Washington. He and his team have developed a mind-body and mental health-focused primary care clinic in the heart of Ballard, and Dr. Simon is proud to have been recognized as a Seattle Met Top Doctor for the last 7 years running. Having provided COVID vaccines, testing, and treatment options for his patients and the community, Dr. Simon was asked to serve as the liaison between the Washington Association of Naturopathic Physicians (WANP) and the Washington State Department of Health Power of Providers group. In this role, he regularly interacts and exchanges ideas with allied health professionals regarding the recent COVID pandemic and other public health concerns that affect all practitioners in Washington State. Dr. Simon has also served as an adjunct faculty clinical supervisor at Bastyr University for the last 10 years.

Patricia Smith

Founder | Compassion Fatigue Awareness Project & Healthy Caregiving

Patricia Smith is the Founder of the Compassion Fatigue Awareness Project and Healthy Caregiving, LLC. As a certified Compassion Fatigue Specialist and Educator with nearly two decades of hands-on experience, she writes, speaks, and facilitates trainings in service of those who care for others in all of the helping professions.

Patricia's extensive work in the field of compassion fatigue began in 2002. As the training & development manager for the Humane Society Silicon Valley, she created a critical shelter-wide compassion fatigue training for employees that proved successful in increasing the staff's well-being and work satisfaction. With the implementation of this project, Patricia recognized the dire need for resources about compassion fatigue and self-care amongst caregivers across the helping professions. She founded the Compassion Fatigue Awareness Project that same year.

Sage Wheeler, ND

Naturopathic Physician | SageMed

Dr. Sage Wheeler is a highly experienced and dedicated naturopathic physician, as well as the owner and director of SageMED. After graduating from Bastyr University in 2009, Dr. Wheeler was the recipient of the competitive ITI-STAIR residency scholarship, which provided him the opportunity to be mentored by both a Naturopathic Physician and a conventionally trained Medical Doctor. This integrative training gave Dr. Wheeler the tools to seamlessly blend the best of western and herbal medicine, and he continues to integrate this knowledge in his practice today. In 2011, Dr. Wheeler established SageMED with the guiding principle that every patient deserves high quality, effective, and comprehensive medical care. At SageMED, patients can trust that they will be treated with competence and compassion by all of our practitioners. Dr. Wheeler's areas of specialty include men's sexual health and wellness, hormone optimization through bio-identical hormone therapy, regenerative medicine, and osteoarthritis treatment.
